What our delegates
say:

Excellent networking and learning opportunity

Lots of discussion and training opportunities.

Great for meeting with others in the advice sector.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The conference is an opportunity for money advisers to meet together to discuss topics of mutual interest, to learn about best practice and to participate in debate. The conference is also a valuable event for anyone who has an interest in money advice which will include a range of organisations who lend money, provide services to debtors, collect debts, and those who involved in regulation, policy and research.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

We offer great value for money: our full conference package includes entrance into all sessions and a choice of training sessions and workshops, overnight accommodation on the 16th May with breakfast on the 17th and other refreshments including buffet lunches, a wine reception and admission to the Gala Dinner (Monday 16th May) and coffee and tea's served throughout. However, if you do not want to stay overnight or join us for the gala dinner we can offer alternatives, either as non residential delegates or day delegates and there is also an option to attend the gala dinner only.
