Financial Wellbeing Coach x4

£25,500 p/a + excellent benefits

Full-time (37.5 hours pw)

Permanent contract

Interventions will be delivered across various locations covering Gwent, Mid and North Wales

Adferiad Recovery in partnership with St Giles Wise will be launching a finance, debt and welfare benefit service for people on parole. Funded by the Ministry of Justice, this new and exciting service aims to provide exclusive financial wellbeing support to individuals who have been referred to the service by the Parole Service.

As our Financial Wellbeing Coach, you will provide holistic money advice to people referred by the Parole Service who are experiencing financial difficulties. Use your existing knowledge and expertise to identify and address a range of issues and provide debt, financial capability and welfare benefit advice and support services to people on parole. Take on case work when within our remit on both welfare benefit, debt and financial wellbeing issues. Develop your knowledge and experience of individuals on parole to set your advice in a meaningful context. Help clients identify the barriers that are hindering progress in dealing with their financial difficulties.

Evidence of Training at Specialist level in money and/or welfare benefits advice from an accredited training provider is essential and hold substantial recent experience providing specialist money and/or welfare benefit advice, either face-to-face or via telephone.

Must have proficient, well developed IT skills and experience.
