

Financial Inclusion Advisor (career grade with progression to Senior role over 18 months)

Full-time – 35 hours per week

Starting Salary £30,129 - £33,478 p.a.

Hexagon Housing owns and manages over 4000 general needs homes in South-East London. We take pride in providing high quality services to our customers and are committed to continuously improving our services. We are committed to raising the quality of our services and putting residents at the heart of what we do.

This is an ideal opportunity if you have:-

- an up to date knowledge of housing benefits and welfare advice,
- a passion for making a difference
- and wish to further develop your career

Initially you will provide one to one support for residents with complex financial and other support needs through the provision of excellent financial advice, assistance and advocacy.

Through a mix of experience and professional development you will over 18 months take on additional responsibilities working towards leading Hexagon's financial inclusion work.

You will be joining an award-winning organisation committed to employee engagement, where every employee is valued and listened to. We will offer you training and supervision to help you achieve your full potential, and an excellent package including essential car user allowance, pension scheme, flexitime, and 26 days annual leave per annum. We are committed to building a diverse workforce and making Hexagon an inclusive place to work where everyone can be themselves and feel valued for their contribution.
